Excise Taxes Stay—Solons

No Repeal Seen In This Session

Washington, Aug. 1 — (AP) — Congress won't kill any wartime excise taxes this session in spite of repeated demands and a request from President Truman himself, House democratic leader McCormack (Mass.) predicted today.

Opening up the question might lead to repeal of all such levies and loss of $1,700,000,000 in revenue, he said.

"You can't lose this much revenue without further unbalancing the budget and without levying other taxes," McCormack observed.

Confers With Truman
The lawmaker spoke to reporters as he emerged from a White House conference with President Truman where he and other congressional leaders talked about the congressional program. Senate democratic leader Lucas said "all agreed" there will be no early adjournment. This apparently meant another month or more.

McCormack doused cold water on the only tax reduction proposed in the president's economic message early last month.

Mr. Truman recommended repeal of the excise tax on freight to help lower basic business costs and work toward reduced consumer prices.

Could Not Be Brought Up
McCormack said he thought the subject could not be taken up without bringing on efforts to wipe out all wartime excise taxes.

These included taxes on sales of most jewelry, railroad tickets, furs and a long list of other items.

The wartime excises are separate from the permanent taxes on such products as liquor and tobacco.

Several excise tax cut bills have been introduced. Chairman George (D-Ga.) of the Senate Finance committee said he favors full repeal of the wartime levies. But it would take cooperation between congress and the administration, he said.

The U. S. Chamber of Commerce yesterday called for repeal of all the wartime excise increases. It said business would be stimulated and income tax yields would gain.

Clark Accepts Post

On Supreme Court; McGrath Att. Gen.

Washington, Aug. 1 — (AP) — Tom Clark today formally accepted nomination to the supreme court and Senator Howard McGrath (D-Ir.) agreed to take Clark's job as attorney general.

President Truman himself disclosed their acceptances as informally as he had announced the offer of the posts at last Thursday's news conference.

Both appointments are subject to senate confirmation. White House officials said the nominations will go to Capitol Hill tomorrow.

McGrath will resign as Democratic senator from Rhode Island and as chairman of the Democratic national committee as soon as the Senate approves his nomination.

William M. Boyle, Jr., one-time Kansas City police official, former Truman secretary and now party executive vice chairman at 30,000 a year, is expected to replace McGrath as Democratic leader.

The chairmanship may be a paid job. McGrath got no salary as chairman.

There had been little doubt that both Clark and McGrath would accept, but until today McGrath's comment had been non committal.

Plans For GOP Day

At Fair Called Off Because Of Polio

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 1 — (AP) — Plans for Republican day at the Illinois State fair, Aug. 12 to 21, were called off today.

The announcement by Carlos W. Campbell of Springfield said the reason was the high incidence of polio in Springfield and some other downstate communities.

Campbell, Republican state central committee chairman, said as a substitute for the fair rally scheduled for Aug. 17, Republicans will have a statewide meeting here in the fall. He mentioned no date.

The Sangamon County Republican committee said that cancellation of Republican day at the fair will not affect plans for a testimonial dinner for Everett M. Dirksen, Pekin, former congressman. The dinner will be Aug. 17 in Springfield.

Dirksen is expected to seek the 1950 Republican nomination for U. S. Senator, but he has not announced his candidacy.

'Satira' Schmidt Named By Woman In Alimony Suit

Cleveland, Aug. 1 — (AP) — Exotic dancer Patricia "Satira" Schmidt, of Toledo, pardoned last October after serving about a year in a Havana jail for the slaying of her married lover, today was named correspondent in a separate maintenance suit.

Bringing the suit in common pleas court was Mrs. Louis Ann Salupo, 34, wife of Sebastian (Alfred) Salupo, business agent here for Local 152 of the Laundry Workers Union.

Mrs. Salupo said in the petition her husband and Miss Schmidt spent this last week end together in Calumet City, Ill., where the 24-year old dancer is making an appearance. Calumet City is a famous night spot area near Chicago.

Mrs. Salupo said her husband met Miss Schmidt a few months after the dancer returned to the United States.

He kept and maintained her at various and sundry places in suites and first-class hotels, amongst others being New Orleans, Detroit, Cleveland, St. Louis, Chicago, New York, and presently Calumet, the suit said.

In asking for temporary alimony, Mrs. Salupo said her husband also serves as business agent for an electrical workers union in Cincinnati.

Woman Who Gave Birth To Baby In Iron Lung Dies

Covington, Ky., Aug. 1 — (AP) — Mrs. Robert G. Davis, 24, who gave birth to a baby girl in an iron lung, died late today of infantile paralysis.

Doctors at St. Elizabeth hospital emphasized that Mrs. Davis' death was not the result of her baby's birth.

The baby, which weighed five pounds and four ounces, was reported by hospital attendants as "doing fine." She was named Margaret Mathilda.

Mrs. Davis was in a serious condition when admitted to the hospital last Saturday. Dr. Thomas Huth, resident physician at the hospital said it was necessary to open the iron lung during the final stages of delivery of the baby yesterday and the motor of the lung was shut off for 15 seconds.

Besides the day old infant, Mrs. Davis is survived by her husband and two other daughters, Carol Ann, 1, and Linda, 2.

Jealous Man Dies Using Dynamite To Blast His Wife

Clarksburg, W. Va., Aug. 1 — (AP) — A jealous miner apparently used a case of dynamite—48 sticks—to blow up himself and his estranged wife last night in downtown Clarksburg.

J. Duane Secrest, 41, was killed. His wife, Dorothy Mamie, 36, is unconscious and on the critical list at a hospital. She was blinded and injured internally.

Secrest had told his wife he would "blow you to hell and back" if he saw another man go into her apartment.

This came out when Mrs. Secrest complained to a justice of the peace last Friday. The magistrate put Secrest under a $500 bond to behave himself.

Chief of Police E. F. Amsler learned from witnesses that Mr. and Mrs. Secrest had an argument around last midnight in front of the apartment house, a block from the business section.

28 Cases Of Polio Raise State Total For Year To 376

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 1 — (AP) — Twenty-eight cases of polio were added today to the record incidence of the disease in Illinois during July.

The state health department said the 28 cases put the total for the year so far at 376 cases, or more than three times the number for the same period last year.

The department said that 298 persons were attacked by the disease last month compared with the previous high of 294 in July of 1946.

In Springfield, health authorities slightly modified their quarantine area restricting children under 16 to their homes and premises.

The health officials excluded the state fairgrounds—north of Springfield—from the quarantine area. The annual state fair is scheduled to open Aug. 12.

Dr. J. H. Shamel, city health superintendent, said the fairgrounds policy would be left up to state authorities.

PATIENT OUTLIVES HOSPITAL NAME

Philadelphia, Aug. 1 — (AP) — The death of a 77-year-old patient who outlived a hospital's name and most of its staff was reported today.

Mrs. Mary Ella Grosnick was taken to Blockley hospital—now Philadelphia General—50 years ago in a horse-drawn ambulance.

Marshall Asks For Arms Aid

CATCHES SQUIRREL WITH ROD AND REEL

Conway, Ark., Aug. 1 — (AP) — Wayne Jeffries went fly-fishing yesterday. He caught a bass weighing two and one-half pounds, then cast again. A squirrel dived at the plug from the bank, but missed.

Jeffries cast again and the squirrel made a second strike at the plug. This time, it got hooked.

Since squirrels are out of season, Jeffries unhooked the animal and turned it loose.

It gave him no further trouble.

2 Children Found Unconscious Near Poisoned Mother

Chicago, Aug. 1 — (AP) — Two children were found unconscious in their home today, eight hours after their mother died. Police said the mother apparently had taken poison.

The children, Arlene Miller, nine, and her five year old brother, Philip, are in a coma and in a critical condition in MacNeal Memorial hospital at suburban Berwyn.

A hospital spokesman said the children "could be suffering from barbiturate poisoning." The state toxicologist is making a test of their urine, the spokesman said.

Their mother, Mrs. Anna Miller, 40, died in the Miller home in suburban Cicero early this morning after a fire department inhalator squad failed to revive her.

The children were in bed at the time and were found in a coma in their beds eight hours later.

Chief Chris Rooney of the Cicero police said it is reasonable to "assume that she herself took the sleeping drug."

Subsidy On Wheat To Be Exported Ranges Up To 34c

Washington, Aug. 1 — (AP) — The government subsidy on wheat sold for export under the new international wheat agreement between 1 p.m. central standard time today and the same time tomorrow will range from 22 to 34 cents a bushel.

The agreement went into effect today.

Announced by the Agriculture department, the initial subsidy is 22 cents for east coast ports, 34 cents for west coast ports, and 26 cents for gulf ports.

The subsidy is offered private exporters so that they may buy grain at domestic market prices and sell it abroad at the lower prices set by the wheat pact.

U. S. Demands Red Satellite Nations Permit Inquiries

Washington, Aug. 1 — (AP) — The United States demanded today that three Russian satellite states permit impartial, on-the-spot inquiries into charges that they are violating basic human rights.

The three are Romania, Bulgaria and Hungary, which are accused by the U. S. of breaking the terms of the peace treaties they signed at the end of the war.

Britain also sent similar notes to the three Balkan nations. The demands are expected to be rejected and in that event the U. S. and Britain probably will carry their case to the United Nations.

The U. S. wants a commission set up in each country. It would include one American, one representative of the satellite country and a third whose nationality would be decided by the first two. The U. N. would be asked to step in if they could not agree on a third member.

Gives States Funds To Study Pollution Of Water Supplies

Washington, Aug. 1 — (AP) — The public health service offered the states and territories $500,000 today as a start on the study of water pollution problems.

The grants will not actually be made, until applications setting forth specific programs have been approved by the public health service.

A number of applications already have been received and are under study, the service said.

Congress appropriated $2,200,000 to the federal security agency to initiate the nation-wide program of water pollution control and prevention.

In addition to the $850,000 for grants to states, $150,000 will be allotted later to interstate agencies and states for special studies that are of national or sectional importance.

Says He Is Very Fearful Of Any Delay

Washington, Aug. 1 — (AP) — General George C. Marshall urged congress today to send arms to western European nations quickly. "I am very fearful of delay," he said.

Backing the full $1,450,000,000 administration program of military assistance to friendly nations, the war-time army chief of staff told the House foreign affairs committee it is "just a beginning" in establishing a firm front to forestall any Russian push.

Committee members have insistently asked witnesses how much operation for mutual defense could be expected from recipient nations. Some Republicans have spoken for positive assurance before supporting even a reduced arms program.

Dangerous To Hold Up
Marshall said it would be "a very dangerous thing" to hold up on the program until Congress is assured that western Europe has a program worked out. He said he doesn't believe there will be any difficulty in getting European nations to cooperate.

Couldn't the program be cut until cooperation is guaranteed? Rep. Judd (R-Minn.) asked. Marshall advised no. "You're trying to start the engine up," the former secretary of state said.

Rep. Javits (R-NY) told Marshall he plans an amendment requiring President Truman to reach agreements with signers of the Atlantic treaty that there be a unified command in defense of western Europe and other unification steps.

Marshall advised Javits that such a requirement "may lead us into something we're not anxious for."

Decline Public Discussion
Other witnesses before the committee have declined public discussion of coordination details. Secretary of Defense Johnson has said there would be an understanding and "working agreement." Marshall noted that five western European nations, England, France, The Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg, already have a unified command.

Marshall declined to estimate the size of the arms program at full scale. Other witnesses have predicted it may require assistance up to five years to build defenses strong enough to discourage any assault on western Europe.

The Russians have "a dangerous advantage," the witness said.

He explained that their leaders can make their own decisions without having to consult any Congress.

Two or three years of aid should put the Europeans in a position where they can help themselves, he said. One provision in the program is for aid in arms production abroad.

Today Col. Robert R. McCormick, her uncle, announced he is placing the 28 year old Mrs. Miller in charge of the Washington Times-Herald as vice president. Her husband will be secretary or treasurer.

Emulating her famous parents, the late Senator Medill McCormick of Illinois and the late Rep. Ruth Hanna McCormick Sims, she also has been active in the Republican party.

During the pre-convention campaigning of 1948, she organized the "Twenties for Taft" clubs in the middle west. These clubs were composed of young people who worked for the nomination of Senator Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio) for President.

9 People Feared Lost In Wisconsin Lake Return Home

Jefferson, Wis., Aug. 1 — (AP) — Nine Rockford, Ill., residents, feared lost Sunday in treacherous Lake Koshong, turned up safe today. They were surprised that the sheriff had been worried about them.

The nine had crossed the lake in three boats, but had been unable to return because the water suddenly became choppy.

Sheriff Roland Gibson said the party did not return to their automobiles until today after setting out to cross the lake Sunday. The lake is an extended widening of the Rock river.

One of the party, Mary Kirkpatrick, 17, telephoned her mother from Fort Atkinson, Wis., today and said she was surprised that anyone had been worried about them.

Other members of the group were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Elmore and their three children, Dean, 17, Billy, 11 and Donald, 13; George McKinney, 36 and his son, Donald, 11, and James Lewis, 21.

HOPE'S WOODEN HORSE PUTS HIM IN HOSPITAL

Astride a saddle on a Paramount studio set, the actor was supposedly riding a horse. Then the camera swung back to show the saddle was on a barrel being rocked by Lucille Ball.

At that point, Hope's wooden steed rolled and threw him to the floor. The fall knocked him out temporarily and at Hollywood Presbyterian hospital his doctor announced he would have to remain in bed several days recovering from a severely wrenched back.

U. S. Marshal Used To Shut Up Loud Commie Attorney

New York, Aug. 1 — (AP) — A fast-talking defense attorney refused to sit down and stop arguing at the communist conspiracy trial today until a United States marshal advanced on him. Then the lawyer did both.

Federal Judge Harold R. Medina, unable to silence Attorney Richard F. Gladstein, told him:

"Will you sit down or must I call an officer to put you down? Your field day is over."

As Gladstein continued to rattle off an objection to prosecution questions to a defense witness, Medina said:

"Mr. Marshal, will you please see —"

As the law advanced, Gladstein sat down and lapsed into silence. This was broken a moment later when other defense attorneys rose to their feet with new objections.

Judge Medina's latest clash with the defense came just before a new witness was called to the stand on behalf of 11 top Red leaders accused of conspiring to advocate the violent overthrow of the U. S. government.

Maragon Denies Association With 'Five Percenters'

Washington, Aug. 1 — (AP) — John Maragon, who rose from bootblack to man-about-Washington, today denied any link with "five percenters."

But he said a Senate committee may have subpoenaed his bank accounts.

Maragon told reporters he kept an account in San Antonio three years ago. He wouldn't say how big it was, or what business he was in there.

Meantime a Senate expenditures subcommittee which quizzed Maragon behind closed doors last week disclosed that his testimony dealt in part with sales or surplus war property.

Maragon called a news conference of his own to deny that he had been fired from the American Aid Mission to Greece in 1946. He might have been dubbed a "nuisance," he said, because he reported drinking and "orgies" on the part of mission officials.

But he denied that he had been Ambassador to Greece. Maragon discharged by Henry F. Grady, U. S. said he had seen newspaper accounts which quoted Grady as saying he was ready to discharge Maragon when orders came for his return to Washington.

Col. R. McCormick Gives Washington Paper To His Niece

LaSalle, Ill., Aug. 1 — (AP) — Youthful Mrs. Ruth McCormick Miller and her husband, Maxwell Peter Miller, Jr., have risen rapidly in the newspaper world in two and a half years.

In January, 1947, they purchased the LaSalle News-Tribune and the nearby Peru News-Herald, which they merged into the News-Herald, published for LaSalle, Peru and Oglesby.

Today Col. Robert R. McCormick, her uncle, announced he is placing the 28 year old Mrs. Miller in charge of the Washington Times-Herald as vice president. Her husband will be secretary or treasurer.

Emulating her famous parents, the late Senator Medill McCormick of Illinois and the late Rep. Ruth Hanna McCormick Sims, she also has been active in the Republican party.

Reports New A-Bombs Being Made On Industrial Basis

Washington, July 31 — (AP) — The United States has gone into industrial production of the more effective atomic bombs tested at Eniwetok in 1948, and has made advances on other atomic fronts, congress was told today.

The information was presented by the atomic energy commission in its semi-annual report. President Truman said in a statement, that the nation has "reason for reassurance and faith" that the atomic program is being effectively pressed, both for defense and human welfare purposes.

This apparently was his answer to the charges of "incredible mismanagement" which Senator Hickel (R-Iowa) made against AEC chairman David E. Lilienthal. A congressional investigation of the charges has been in progress.

The AEC reported:

1. Its Eniwetok-tested bombs — more effective than those used before 1948 — are being produced on an "industrial basis." This means that they have progressed beyond the laboratory-made stage, and are being turned out by private manu-

U. S., Italian Chiefs Meet

EVERYBODY WANTS TO GET INTO THE ACT

Decatur, Ill., Aug. 1 — (AP) — Prince Marko said "hokus-pokus" and a man's watch and billfold disappeared.

"Gingerokus" and it was back. The audience at a Decatur amusement park went away amazed last night and "satisfied." What is this thing called magic? they asked.

The magician returned to his dressing room and found his billfold containing $40 had been stolen.

Now the prince is wondering if the burglars know the magic words.

Attlee Confined To His Quarters With 'A Bad Chill'

London, Aug. 1 — (AP) — Prime Minister Clement Attlee joined two of his chief labor government lieutenants on the sick list tonight, as Britain struggled through an economic crisis.

The bald, scholarly Attlee, who is 66, was confined at his official country home near London with "a bad chill," his wife said.

A spokesman at Ten Downing street—the prime minister's London residence—said Attlee was not seriously ill but gave no further details of his ailment.

The prime minister has been filling in for ailing Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and Chancellor of the Exchequer Sir Stafford Cripps, as well as carrying on his own tasks.

Cripps is in a Swiss clinic for treatment of a chronic digestive ailment. Bevin, who suffers from heart trouble and high blood pressure, is resting in a resort at Evian, France.

These were the first of scheduled meetings by the joint chiefs with military leaders of the Atlantic pact nations. They will move on to London, Paris and Vienna later this week for further conferences.

Sheriff Saves Man From Florida Mob In Lynching Mood

Nashville, Ga., Aug. 1 — (AP) — A south Georgia sheriff today told of coolly taking an unidentified negro from a mob bent on avenging the attempted rape of a housewife.

Sheriff N. N. Hughes said the negro was in no way connected with the attack on a 40-year-old farmer's wife left alone at home while her husband took the three children to Sunday school.

The mob believed, said Hughes, that the negro could lead them to a suspect and intended to make him do so.

The mob seized the negro at his home, Hughes continued, and when he arrived, it had him outside on the road where a number of cars were lined up.

"I told 'em," said Hughes, "that we had good negroes here and bad negroes and we were going to see that the good ones were protected. I told 'em that they were going to get themselves in more trouble than they would ever get out of."

As for the negro, Hughes observed that he "was just about as cool as anyone you'd ever seen. He told 'em he wouldn't go with them, but would go with me. They finally agreed."

ELECTED VICE PRESIDENT
Chicago, Aug. 1 — (AP) — Albert O. Steffey, 42, today was elected vice president of Butler Brothers, a general merchandising firm, and president of its subsidiary Scott-Burr Stores corporation.

He was a vice president of Montgomery Ward and company until last April.

Both testified at the opening of a hearing a defense motion for a new trial for the 28-year-old St. Louis pediatrician convicted last May of stabbing to death Byron C. Eastman, 29, St. Louis aircraft specialist, in a Cedar Rapids hotel Dec. 14.

Both Hann and Anawalt, 40, gave testimony substantially the same about Novotny's alleged remarks. Both said they heard the statements on a bus while enroute to work. Both said they heard Novotny make them before and after he was selected for the jury.

3 FOOT 7 INCH MAN BEGINS LAW PRACTICE
Portland, Ore., Aug. 1 — (AP) — The most lawyer in the world for the money arrived here today—all 8 feet 7 inches of him.

He is Clifford Thompson, 44, former circus attraction, who came from Waupaca, Wis., and announced he would begin law practice here.

With his normal-sized wife, he set up housekeeping at a hotel, while he looked for out-size permanent quarters.

He said he left the circuses to study law at Milwaukee in the early 1930's, and quit the sawdust trail permanently in 1938 to practice law.

Report Success In Defense Plans

Frankfurt, Germany, Aug. 1 — (AP) — American and Italian military chiefs reported a satisfactory preliminary exchange of views today on how to fit Italy into western Europe's defenses under the North Atlantic treaty.

Italy's army and navy chiefs of staff conferred for 75 minutes with the United States joint chiefs of staff in the tightly guarded war room of Frankfurt's headquarters building.

No details were disclosed, but there were some indications the opening talks revolved in part around Italy's naval position in the Mediterranean.

Small Navy
Adm. Louis E. Denfeld, U.S. chief of naval operations, pointed out to reporters afterward that Italy has a "relatively small navy" under her peace treaty.

"We haven't worked out Italy's role," Denfeld said, but added there was a "good understanding" of problems on both sides.

Lt. Gen. Erisio Marras, Italian army chief of staff, said Denfeld and the U.S. army and air force chiefs, Gen. Omar Bradley and Hoyt Vandenberg, "displayed a friendship on which we can rely without question."

These were the first of scheduled meetings by the joint chiefs with military leaders of the Atlantic pact nations. They will move on to London, Paris and Vienna later this week for further conferences.

No More Battleships
Vice-Admiral Emilio Ferreri, Italian navy chief of staff, commented to newsmen on Adm. Denfeld's reference to his country's depleted navy.

He said Italy's naval forces now total about 67,500 tons not including 47,000 tons of battleships. Italy's 1946 peace treaty specified that she could build no more battleships and could not maintain more than

EASING UP IS AN ART

We've been hearing for years that many of our top business executives kill themselves with the strain of overwork. Perhaps most of us have felt this situation was just an unfortunate accompaniment of modern living about which nothing could be done.

But now comes a suggestion that this tense pace is neither normal nor necessary, even for today. Writing in Collier's magazine, Howard Whitman quotes psychiatrists as declaring it is an abnormal, neurotic drive rather than brains, energy or ambition that leads a man to punish himself with work and possibly "succeed himself to death."

Business leaders can amass plenty of evidence to support their contention that their problems and burdens have mounted to dizzy heights in the last two decades, and that their own tensions have risen in proportion. The doctors, however, decline to admit that most executives have to work as hard as they often do.

They insist that the men who let work dominate their lives are out of balance in some way. They say some have a distorted idea of life that allows no place for fun and rest. Some men simply don't know how to use free time and tie themselves to work to avoid boredom. Others are ridden by fears—of failure, and competing executives, of insecurity they often can't define. So these high voltage individuals focus so hard on making a living that they forget all about making a life. They deprive their families of badly needed companionship and guardianship. They lose the matchless riches of leisure, the fulfillment of spiritual wants that can't be satisfied in the grubbing world of work. And into the bargain, they kill themselves. In so doing, they rob business of brain power, training and leadership.

Thus they defeat the very purposes for which they are supposedly slaving. The doctors' advice to business executives is to grow up, to stop racing each other to the grave and grasping for the symbols of life instead of life itself.

Any sensible person would be likely to agree with Dr. Leo H. Bartemeier of Detroit, whom Whitman quotes as follows: "The grown-up man has his prestige and security within him. He doesn't have to make a million dollars. He doesn't need the biggest car. His joy comes from being a person, a fully realized human being."

Damage To Two Cars, Truck In Triple Smash-Up

A panel truck and two automobiles were damaged in a triple smash-up Sunday night, at 9:30 o'clock at South Main street and College avenue, where stop signs have been erected while the electric traffic controls are out of commission.

Walter Sasseberger, driving a 1947 Chevrolet panel truck, stopped for the boulevard as he was driving south on Main street. A 1934 Plymouth driven by Pvt. Jack Leffler of Scott Field is reported to have collided with the Sasseberger truck from the rear. A moment or two later a car driven by Harry DeGroot is reported to have struck the back end of Leffler's car.

All three machines were damaged in various degrees but there were no injuries.

Rat Bites Hand Of Sleeping Girl

Jerseyville—Patty Delp, five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Delp of this city, was bitten severely about the right hand by a rat about 2 o'clock Saturday morning.

The little girl was sleeping in a bed between two of her sisters but the rat which invaded the bedroom of the children selected Patty as its victim.

"I heard the child scream," her father reported Saturday afternoon, "and went into the place where she and her two sisters were sleeping. Her hand and arm were streaked with blood. I immediately sterilized the bites with an antiseptic I had in the house. The rat bit completely through the palm of her hand at a point below the base of the thumb."

After treating the child's injuries, the services of a local physician were sought.

It Ain't The Humanity — It's The Heat

By Hal Boyle

New York—(AP)—The big news today is—it's cooler.

Those two magic words were of most interest along the heat-hit eastern seaboard than the standings of the Major league baseball teams or the question of arming friendly nations under the Atlantic pact.

"It's cooler!"

"It's cooler!"

"It's cooler!"

Everybody said it—and everybody felt it. Everybody was on relief from the heat.

Because the weather has been on every mind all summer long. It's had everybody by the throat—gasping, here in this hazy-by-the-Hudson.

Never in history has so much humanity been wedded to so much humidity, nor longed so hard for a divorce. The month of July was the hottest ever recorded here, but the heat started long before that. Since the first of January the weather bureau reports that Metropolitan New York has had a temperature excess of 1,043 degrees above normal.

Feel 'Em And Clap 'Em

When you have 1,043 degrees above normal there are only two things the average citizen can do about them. That is to feel them—and to complain about them.

Out in Phoenix, Ariz., or Kansas City, Mo., boastful citizens sometimes prove how hot it gets there by frying an egg on the street.

That is unnecessary braggadocio here. You simply break the egg on your forehead, and by the time it rolls down to your mouth it has been poached in the perspiration.

The streets have been so searing that even the pigeons refuse to land on them until two hours after sundown.

The weather has played all kinds of strange pranks on people. We will leave out the fellow in Washington, D.C., who stole 38 gallons of anti-freeze solution. Let us take up television.

Two Of Everything
In the ordinary television program you see two of everything.

Even if you have 20-20 vision. This is normal, and the second image is known as the "ghost." But in the current heat wave every character on a television program looks like the Dionne quintuplets. And the game players are wondering if they can't claim a quintuple hooper rating, since everybody sees them five times.

The refrigerated movie palaces have done a thriving business. Some folks have simply moved into them for the duration.

Along 51st street—the poor man's glamor lane—they tell of a heat-desperate patron who pulled out a pistol and told a bartender trying to close the joint at 4 a. m.:

"It's all right if you want to go home, but I'm staying here. And you're going to leave the air-conditioning on, too."

Burglars Smash Cash Register

The Hudson Dairy Bar on East Morton avenue was burglarized early Monday morning with attention centered on the cash register, which was carried into a nearby field and broken open.

County officers found the damaged cash register, from which about $16 was stolen.

The burglars got into the building between 11:45 o'clock Sunday night and 4:15 a. m. Monday. The door glass on the north side of the dairy was broken.

Sheriff Bourn and Deputy Edlen went to the dairy early Monday morning to investigate the burglary.

SOCIAL SECURITY AND YOU

(This series of questions and answers is presented in order that you may be better informed about the operations of Federal Old Age and Survivors Insurance. Additional questions should be directed to the Social Security Administration at Springfield. Mrs. Margaret Chapin, Social Security Representative, is in Jacksonville each Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the U. S. Employment office.)

Q. Can a person get social security payments if he's not a citizen of the U.S.? I took out my first papers but I'm not yet a citizen. I've always worked on jobs where they took off social security.

A. You need not be a citizen in order to get social security payments. If you're 65 or older and have worked on jobs that come under social security for a long enough time, you can get retirement payments regardless of whether you're a citizen.

Q. Are all workers and their families protected by old-age and survivors insurance?

A. No. At present, only workers employed in private business and industry comes under the social security act.

Q. What kinds of work are not covered by social security?

A. Agricultural work, domestic work in a private home, self-employment, government employment, federal, state, county and city, and employment by certain non-profit organizations, such as churches, Y.M.C.A., etc. Work for a railroad is also excepted from the coverage of the social security act, since it is covered by a separate law, the Railroad Retirement Act.

Q. How much do workers and their employers have to pay in to the social security fund?

A. Both the worker and employer pay 1% of the wages paid to the worker on covered jobs, up to $3000 a year. Thus, the total tax payment is 2%. A worker who is paid $200 a month would have $2 deducted for social security tax and his employer would match this with $2. The tax rate for both employee and employer is scheduled to increase to 1 1/2% in 1950.

Q. How does a worker go about paying his social security tax?

A. The worker's tax is deducted from his wages every pay day by his employer. Once every three months the employer sends the worker's contribution and his own tax to the Collector of Internal Revenue. It is the employer's responsibility to do this, not the employee's. It is the responsibility of the employee to see that his employer has his name and social security number recorded correctly, however.

Q. Does everyone who has a social security card get old-age and survivors insurance benefits?

A. No. Benefits are payable only to workers (and to the families of workers) who are "insured"; that is, workers who have worked long enough on jobs under social security to qualify for payments. In most cases, this means about one-half of the time between January 1, 1937, and the time the worker reaches 65, or dies. For workers who were

White Labor Used In Africa

Edea (French Cameroons)—(P)—A group of Italians working on the construction of a power dam in the French Cameroons, may revolutionize the use of white labor in Central Africa. The 180 men, working for a French firm at Edea, are the first white men to be employed in this part of Africa. Native labor had previously been used on the construction of the dam, but proved so slow that the firm decided to experiment with white labor.

In six months the Italians have built a 1000-foot-long provisional dam which the management reckons would have taken 18 months to construct with native labor. The speed of building has covered the higher cost of labor and more elaborate living quarters which included running water, a community refrigerator and a small hospital.

Forced Labor Camps Dot Poland

Rawicz, Poland —(P)—This is a small town in former Eastern German territory, but it seems to have a big population anyway. There's a big prison here for political offenders against the Communist-led Warsaw government. Residents say 7,000 persons are imprisoned here.

To the east of Rawicz, in a little town of Sieradz, on the road to Lodz, another in Poland's string of forced labor camps has appeared. Poland also maintains big forced labor camps in Jaworzno, near Katowice, in Southern Poland, and in Warsaw. How many more there may be scattered about the country has never been officially disclosed. But every motor tour of the less-frequented towns and villages in Poland seems to produce evidence that more and more camps are being established.

Ways to Save

If you were a Tahitian native you would "save for a rainy day" by sun drying sea cucumbers, or rori, which have a ready market in China for use in making soup. Rori are thumb sized and shaped like fish that have such a powerful smell when being dried that they must be kept "down wind" from the village. They are very tough when dried and require hours of cooking, but are said to have a marvelous flavor.

Ceremony At Church Unites Local Couple

Louise Harrell, Gerald Tribble Exchange Vows

In a candlelight ceremony which took place July 22 at the Assembly of God church, Miss Louise Harrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Harrell, Sr., of 1008 Route 1 street, became the bride of Gerald Tribble, son of Mrs. C. Cummings, 821 South Main street.

The vows were received in double-ring rites performed by Rev. W. A. Gardner at an altar banked with ferns and candelabra.

Miss Marie Harrell of Detroit, Mich., sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Miss Darlene Gray of Merritt was bridesmaid. The best man was the bridegroom's brother, Harold Tribble. Ushers were Clyde Vieira and Raymond Coultas. Beverly Joe Cox, niece of the bride, served as flower girl.

Plays Wedding Marches
The wedding marches were played by Mrs. Vern Cox of Virginia. Miss Betty Lou Cox, also of Virginia, sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, William Harrell. Her gown was of white net over satin, fashioned with fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline, edged with lace ruffling, and bridal point sleeves. The tulle veil, worn with blusher, misted from a crown of seed pearls and fell in a long train, bordered with lace.

As her only jewelry, the bride wore a double strand of pearls. She carried a white Bible, adorned with an orchid attached to a shower effect of white satin ribbons.

Pink and Yellow For Attendants
The gowns of the bridal attendants were of organdy over taffeta, with the maid of honor wearing pink and the bridesmaid, yellow. Both wore matching picture hats and carried colonial bouquets.

The flower girl was attired in a floor-length gown of lavender organdy, with matching picture hat. She carried a basket of flower petals.

A gray print with black accessories was worn by the bride's mother, while the bridegroom's mother chose a dress of navy blue with black accessories. Their corsages were of white carnations.

A reception for 80 guests was held at the Dunlap hotel following the wedding. The couple then left on a wedding trip, after which they will make their home in this city.

The meeting, attended by 18 members and several guests, was conducted by the president, Mrs. Roy Davenport. Two papers were read during the afternoon, "New Methods of Canning" by Mrs. Elmer Strawn and Rogers Butterfield's "The Legend of Will Rogers" by Mrs. Clift Davis.

During the social period, refreshments were served by the hostess. The club adjourned for a vacation during August. The next meeting will be held on Sept. 6 with Mrs. Clyde Cox and Mrs. Albert Cox.

Mary E. Stinebaker Weds Charles Black

Home Ceremony Unites Couple Sunday Afternoon

An altar of ferns and palms, accented with white gladioli and flanked by glowing tapers provided a pretty setting for the marriage of Miss Mary Elizabeth Stinebaker and Charles Edward Black, which was solemnized in a double-ring ceremony performed Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock by Dr. Frank Marston.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Stinebaker, 1501 South Church street. Mr. Black's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clyde D. Black, Sr., rural route four, Jacksonville, at whose home the wedding took place.

Appropriate wedding selections were played by Mrs. Virginia Bladen of Decatur, aunt of the bridegroom, who was also accompanist for Mrs. Opaline Swisher as she sang "I Love You Truly," "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because."

Attended By Sister

The bride's sister, Mrs. Dolores Fernandes of Springfield, was the matron of honor. Clyde Black, Jr., of Decatur served his brother as best man. The candles were lighted before the ceremony by Miss Virginia Davis.

Lovely in a gown of pale blue marquisette over satin, the bride was given in marriage by her father. The bodice of the gown was satin, styled with a marquisette yoke, giving a decollete appearance to the berth neckline. The mar-

Her veil was shoulder length blue marquisette held in place with a halo of blue flowers. She wore matching opera gloves and carried a showered bouquet of white roses, centered with white gardenias.

The lace and linen handkerchief which she carried had been carried by the bridegroom's maternal grandmother at her wedding.

Mrs. Fernandes was attired in a yellow gown, fashioned after the bridal gown. Pink roses formed her headpiece and colonial bouquet. The candlelighter wore a pink gown.

Reception Follows Ceremony

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home, with more than 200 guests in attendance. A 3-tier wedding cake, topped with miniature bride and groom, was cut by the couple. Serving was done by Mrs. Clyde Black, Jr., of Decatur, Mrs. Leonard Thomas of Bluffs, Mrs. Paul S. Black and Miss Mary Hempel.

The guests were registered by Mrs. Frances Allen.

For receiving the guests, Mrs. Stinebaker wore a navy blue bemberg sheer print, with blue accessories and a corsage of red roses. A black and white print bemberg sheer was worn by the bridegroom's mother. Her accessories were white and her corsage of yellow roses.

Leave on Wedding Trip

As the couple left on a short wedding trip, the bride was wearing a navy and white sheer print, with matching accessories and a gardenia corsage.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Black are graduates of Jacksonville High school. She has been employed at the New Method Book Bindery and is route salesman for the J. D. Roselle Co. He was in the naval air corps for two and a half years during World War II, serving in the Pacific theatre.

The couple will reside at 847 South Main street.

Guests attended the wedding from Decatur, Paris, Charleston, Washington, Edinburg, Winchester, Bluffs, Manchester, Alton, Springfield and Chicago.

Miss Wanda Hopper Bride Of Lyle Lowe

Couple Pledge Vows In Charming Outdoor Service

The spacious lawn at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wegehoff on rural route four was the scene of a lovely wedding ceremony Sunday evening, when Miss Wanda Hopper daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Linn, 126 Diamond court, became the bride of their foster son, Lyle Lowe.

The double-ring rites were performed at 7 o'clock by Rev. Leslie G. Heuston before a background of ferns. Leading to the improvised altar was an aisle formed by streamers of white satin ribbons, extending from a trellis covered with mixed gladioli.

The wedding marches were played by Mrs. Virginia Sassenberger, who also accompanied Kenneth Lowe, brother of the bridegroom, as he sang "My Wonderful One" and "O, Promise Me."

Miss Wanda Hopper was the maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Geneva Compton and Miss Mary Jane McCurley. Jerry Lowe, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man. Serving as groomsmen were Wayne Hopper and Donald Lowe, brothers of the bride and bridegroom, respectively.

Pearl Trim on Gown
 Given in marriage by her stepfather, the bride was attired in a gown of white satin, featuring a sheer yoke, scalloped neckline trimmed with beaded pearls, fitted bodice and sleeves extending to points over the hands. The full skirt terminated in a short train.

A tiara of seed pearls held in place the fingertip veil of French illusion, edged with lace. The bridal bouquet was of white roses and gladioli.

A gown of lime organza, styled similarly to the bridal gown, was worn by the maid of honor. She wore a hat of white horsehair, scalloped opera gloves and carried an arm bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Identical in design, the bridesmaids' gowns were also of organza. Miss Compton wore orchid and Miss McCurley yellow. Both had matching mitts and horsehair hats of white. They carried colonial bouquets.

The flower girl, Diana Sassenberger, was costumed in pink organza and wore a halo of pink roses. A white suit was worn by the ring bearer, Dennis Wegehoff, who carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

Lawn Reception Given

A reception for 75 guests was held on the lawn following the ceremony. For receiving guests, the bride's mother wore a dress of deep rose, with blue accessories. A dark blue dress with white accessories was worn by the bridegroom's mother. Both had corsages of white gladioli.

Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Ed Wegehoff, Miss Wilma Dobs, Mrs. Donald Lowe, Katherine Ann Whitaker, and the bride's cousins, Ruth, Arlene, Juanita and Jean Birdsell.

After a wedding trip through the South, the couple will reside in this city. As her traveling ensemble, the bride wore a summer suit of dusty rose, with dark blue accessories and a corsage of white roses.

Mr. Lowe graduated from Jacksonville High school and will resume his studies at Illinois college next fall. He is a veteran of World War II, having served in the navy for three years, and is now employed at the Morgan County Service company.

Spahn, Braves Take 8-1 Tilt From Cards

St. Louis, Aug. 1.—(P)—Lefty Spahn pitched the Boston Braves to an 8-1 victory over the Cardinals tonight. Spahn's performance was the league-leading Cardinals' margin over Brooklyn to half a game. Ed Sauer slammed a three-run homer, and Bob Elliott hit one good for two runs.

Striking out four and walking only one, Spahn coasted to his 13th victory against eight defeats. He gave up eight hits, including a home run by Enos Slaughter to the right field pavilion in the fourth. The two Boston homers were hit off Harry "The Cat" Brecheen, the starting and losing pitcher, and both came after two were out. The three-run homer by Sauer, an ex-Cardinal, went into the left field bleachers and was his second of the year. He scored behind Eddie Fletcher and Elliott who had singled. In the first inning, just after Alvin Dark walked, the park lights went out for several seconds. Elliott was the next man up after the lights came on again and blasted

Griffith Says Nats Will Have Better Team In 2 Years

Washington, Aug. 1.—(P)—Clark Griffith said today Washington is going to have a real Major League baseball team—"but not until 1951." The 78-year-old owners of the Washington Senators said he has spent "over a half million dollars since the fall of 1947 in an effort to rebuild the sagging Senators with new young blood. They are now in seventh place."

Griffith told reporters the Washington farm system has no less than 152 youngsters who will start trickling into the junior circuit in 1951.

The "old fox" wrote off this season as quickly as possible. "I thought and still think we have a good ball team," he said. "I just don't know how to explain what's happened to us. Our pitching collapsed for one thing. That's obvious, but those boys we've got can pitch better than they're doing. "I'm not blaming (manager) Joe Kuhel for anything. It hasn't been his fault. Joe's done a fine job. He's going to make us a real good manager."

Of the 52 players in the system, Griffith labeled 35 as "sure fire, can't miss, greatest I've seen."

Sam Snead Wins Western Open And $2,600 Prize Money

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 1.—(P)—Sam Snead, the White Sulphur Springs, W.Va., professional who says he's "tired of golf" had something today to relieve that tired feeling.

It was the $2,600 he won yesterday by taking first place in the 46th annual Western Open with a 72-hole total of 268. That score bettered the Western Open record of 270, set in 1947 by Johnny Palmer, Badin, N.C., and equaled the record for the 6,577-yard Keller course, set in 1946 by Henry Hanson.

To get his 268, Snead had to shoot one of three rounds of 65 scored in the four days of play in the Western classic. He fired that one Saturday to add to his earlier rounds of 69 and 67.

Cary Middlecoff of Memphis shot a 65 yesterday to boost himself to a four-round of 272 and take down $1,800 second money.

Jury Picked To Try Abortion Charge Against Mrs. Janes

Chicago, Aug. 1.—(P)—A jury qualified to inflict the death penalty was being selected today to try Mrs. Olive Janes, 40. She is charged with abortion and murder by abortion.

John Long, assistant state's attorney, who said he would ask the venem if they would object to a death penalty, added that selection of the jury would last two or three days.

The Chicago housewife on trial in criminal court is accused of helping in a fatal operation on Mrs. Roberta Danks, 28.

Mrs. Danks' body was found on a lonely road near Chesterton, Ind., last February. At first she was believed to have been an auto accident victim.

Mrs. Janes said that an eye, ear, nose, and throat specialist, Dr. Edward Rosenzweig, had performed the operation on Mrs. Danks in Mrs. Janes' basement.

To Proclaim End Of Indonesian War

Batavia, Java, Aug. 1.—(P)—The end of fighting between the Dutch and Indonesian republicans will be proclaimed Wednesday, the United Nations said today.

The formal action will call a halt to the hit-and-run fighting that began last December when the Dutch seized the republican capital, Jogjakarta, in what they called police action.

There has been little actual fighting since the Dutch agreed to allow President Soekarno and other republican leaders to return to Jogjakarta early last month.

Brownies Defeat Washington 2-0

Washington, Aug. 1.—(P)—Bob Dillinger pounded out three hits in four attempts tonight to lead the St. Louis Browns to a 2 to 0 win over Washington, behind Karl Drews' eight-hit pitching.

Drews permitted only one senator to reach third base in outpitching Ray Scarborough, who allowed 10 hits.

The Browns scored in the fourth inning when Jerry Priddy singled, took second after Roy Sievers fouled to deep left field and scored on Sherman Lollar's single. Singles by Paul Lehner, Ed Pellagrini and Dillinger produced the other St. Louis runs in the ninth.

Escaped Convict Caught Hitchhiking

Chicago, Aug. 1.—(P)—A 23-year-old convict who walked away from the Michigan state prison farm at Jackson was picked up today while hitchhiking.

State Patrolman Frank Paragol, who made the arrest, identified the youth as Ray Schmel. Paragol said Schmel had one and one-half years to serve on a five year robbery sentence.

Schmel was held at the suburban Blue Island station pending information from Jackson. Paragol said Schmel claimed to be en route to Dallas, Tex., to see his wife and child.

CEASE FIRE ORDER

Batavia, Java, Aug. 1.—(P)—The United Nations commission for Indonesia today announced that an order to cease hostilities in Indonesia will be issued Wednesday.

The announcement said the order will become effective "some day later" at a time to be announced by the Dutch and Republicans.

Merger Of 2 Pro Basketball Leagues Reported Near

Indianapolis, Aug. 1.—(P)—The National Basketball league and Basketball Association of America today were reported near agreement on a merger that would end costly bidding for college stars.

The big cities of the BAA and the smaller communities of the older NBL will meet in New York Wednesday to try to agree on details.

Ike Duffey, NBL president and wealthy Anderson, Ind., meat packer, said the off-proposed merger was nearer reality than ever before after an NBL meeting here Saturday.

He said it had to come "sooner or later, or both leagues will be ruined."

Hammond, Ind., of the NBL has been conducting a civic campaign to raise money to keep its team going after a financially bad 1948-49 season. Providence, R. I., of the BAA has asked that its franchise be suspended temporarily.

Indianapolis of the BAA is in receivership.

The leagues have fought each other with increased bitterness since Indianapolis, Minneapolis and Fort Wayne bolted from the NBL to BAA in May, 1948.

Swatters, Poison Used To Drive Bees From Pair's House

Camden, N.J., Aug. 1.—(P)—Thousands of buzzing, stinging bees were driven out of a Camden home with fly swatters and a formaldehyde candle after police and firemen used the warning no part of the honey-makers.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coffman doctored their faces, necks and arms—the only evidence of the invasion left.

The bees invaded the Coffman home after a tree, containing their nesting place, was felled outside the building on Saturday.

Mrs. Coffman telephoned police to "hurry, they're coming through the ceiling, through the windows, everywhere."

But police—and firemen, too—were helpless. They recommended a beekeeper.

The Coffmans, using fly swatters with deadly accuracy, obtained a formaldehyde candle. Its fumes drove out the bees.

Boston Red Sox Beat Indians 4-3

The victory gave the Sox a 3-2 edge in the five game series, which attracted a total of 134,131 fans.

By winning the third place Sox selected by many as winter bouquet gemmest favorites, moved within 21 games of the second place Indians. They now trail the leading New York Yankees by seven games.

Dom DiMaggio had two hits, keeping his consecutive games hitting streak alive through 28 games—half as many as Brother Joe recorded for a major league mark.

The star Brooklyn hurler retired 16 consecutive men from the third inning to the ninth when Ralph Kiner tagged him for a double after one man was out. Kiner, who had been in a batting slump, also got two singles to account for three of Pittsburgh's hits.

Big Ernie Bonham, trying for his sixth consecutive win, was baited from the box in the first without getting a man out. Murry Dickson, reliever Bonham, pitched the Brooklyn 9-0 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Little respect was shown for our local team throughout the tournament. Recognized as possibly the class of the series, with a season's record of 10-1, they were humbled by a succession of "ringers" and otherwise "bad" breaks. Moose officials were kept busy making gories to Havana in an effort to keep their law-abiding team in the running.

Girl's Naked Try To Swim Channel Criticized By Man

Dover, England, Aug. 1.—(P)—Curvaceous Shirley May France, 16-year-old Somerset, Mass., mermaid was criticized today for planning to swim the English channel in the nude.

And it was a man who disapproved of the idea. "Nudity appeals to little boys and indecent people," Edward Temme, first man to swim the 20-mile stretch of water twice, told British and American newsmen today.

"I think it is unnecessary to her attempt," he added. "If it is a stunt, we can do without it. If she is serious about swimming, why, good luck to her."

The American girl had two plunges in the cold, grey channel today—both with a suit covering her tail, 158-pound frame.

She has settled into a strict training routine that will prepare her for an expected assault within the next two weeks.

Proposes Budget List US Functions Not Its Agencies

Washington, Aug. 1.—(P)—A federal "performance budget," showing outlays in terms of government functions instead of agencies, was proposed today by Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.).

The plan—one of the recommendations of the Hoover commission—was introduced as an amendment to the budgeting and accounting procedures bill now pending.

The citizens' committee for the Hoover report acclaimed the revised measure as "one of the two most important fiscal measures in the nation's history." The other, it said, was a budget reform of 1921.

"It makes possible a complete revision of the government's obsolete accounting system, parts of which have been virtually unchanged since the first term of President George Washington," the committee's statement said.

Red-hot Cardinal fans still won't believe their eyes, but this also happened in St. Louis Sunday afternoon. Red Schoendienst—Cardinal's impecable second baseman—bobbled a ground ball; his first mismove on such a play since September 15, 1948, almost a year ago. Aw, give the batter a hit!

Giving the devil his just dues, there was nothing daffy about the way the Dodgers ran the bases. The Bums took exceptional liberties with Joe Garagiola's throwing apparatus and pilfered everything except the Redbird off the young catcher's home uniform.

Spotts Aids Losing Cause

Stan Spotts' favorite fan in Springfield (Jack Rogister) sends us another clipping from the Orlando Morning Sentinel which shows that Stan is not only playing regularly but doing a good job of it to boot.

In a recent, tussle with Gainesville which featured Myril Hoag, former Yankee outfielder, on the mound, Stan scored the lone Orlando run when he doubled in the seventh inning and drove home a few pitches later on a single. He was the only Orlando run of the game as Hoag belted the junior Senators 9-1.

N. Y. Giants Whip Chicago Cubs 9-0

Chicago, Aug. 1.—(P)—Bobby Thomson backed up Clint Hartung's effective six-hit pitching today with a triple, two doubles and a single in the New York Giants' 11-3 romp over the last-place Chicago Cubs.

Hartung, knocked from the box in six straight starts, went the route for the first time since June 28 in a loosely played game. Four errors by the Cubs and 14 Giant hits contributed to the rout.

A three-run spurge in the third knocked out starter Bob Chipman. Hank Sauer's 22nd homer broke Hartung's shutout in the sixth. It was the second Cub hit. They bunched Gene Mauch's double, Hal Jeffcoat's triple and a long fly for the other two in the eighth.

Brooklyn Breezes To 9-0 Shutout Of Pittsburgh

Pittsburgh, Aug. 1.—(P)—Brooklyn kept hot on the heels of the St. Louis Cardinals in the torrid National league race tonight by waltzing to a 9-0 win over Pittsburgh before a crowd of 29,488.

The Dodgers batted around in the first inning for six runs to take the pressure off Big Ralph Branca who allowed only four hits as he won his 12th game against three defeats.

Branca was in great form and his mates supported him with a 11-hit attack, including homers by Pee Wee Reese, Duke Snider and Gil Hodges.

The star Brooklyn hurler retired 16 consecutive men from the third inning to the ninth when Ralph Kiner tagged him for a double after one man was out. Kiner, who had been in a batting slump, also got two singles to account for three of Pittsburgh's hits.

Local Softball Clubs Split Pair With Guests In District Tournament

Games Tonight
House of Clay vs. V. F. W. (Jacksonville) 7:30 p.m.
Carrollton Lions vs. Nesco (Jacksonville) 8:45 p.m.

Southside diamond fans last night witnessed a pair of one-sided softball tussles as teams from Jacksonville and vicinity continued their first-round quest for the district tournament crown and a chance to participate in the next-running higher sectional meet which will convene here August 10. Both winning teams rolled a natural—11 runs—as they racked up impressive wins over their luckless opponents.

Roothouse Whips Ruh & Durocher

The Roothouse Flyers shattered any dreams that the Jacksonville Ruh & Durocher nine might have had concerning the district championship when they tagged three R & D pitchers for 8 hits and 11 runs, and blanked the locals, 11-0.

A big fourth inning clubbed 6 tallies on the Roothouse club's total, and they came back in the fifth frame to add 4 more to a lone run they had made way back in the opening chapter.

Roothouse twirler Bob Vinyard held the Ruh & Durocher batsmen to a single hit. Jones, local right-fielder, counted the safe blow, a single, in the third inning.

Coumbes led the R & D pitching procession to the mound. He lasted three innings. Schneider twirled the fourth frame, and Hainey finished the contest in the fifth period.

FEW U.S. MOVIES REACH JAPAN

Tokyo.—(P)—The flow of American movies into Japan has gone down to a trickle. And the Japanese are beginning to complain. American film producers are cutting down the number of films for this country because they can't convert the yen income to dollars. They have more than a billion yen piled up.

Not a single new American film was booked for Japanese movie houses in July. Those already here were shown, however. Japanese are disturbed. They say Hollywood had been helping spread democracy with films.

Japanese exhibitors don't like it either. Their pocketbooks are being hurt. Patrons prefer Hollywood movies to those made in Japan.

TRIESTE TROOPS GO TO SCHOOL

Trieste.—(P)—Soldiers of Trieste United States Troops (Trust) will be able to attend High School Courses while overseas.

The 391st Infantry Regiment Educational Center has organized academic courses in algebra, English and European history, biology and technical-vocational courses in typing and mechanical drawing.

Each class meets twice a week for one and one-half hours. Sixteen weeks of satisfactory work in the courses is the equivalent of a six-month course in an American high school, says Robert C. Rignell, (Columbus, Ohio) Trust educational director.

REFUGE

THE STORY: A wealthy widow, Mrs. Malone, is fleeing with her servant in two giant trailers from atomic warfare which she believes is impending. In the party are Mrs. Malone, cook and housekeeper; Rudy, the chauffeur; Victor, the houseboy, and the Marchese Delicassa, Mrs. Malone's companion. Mrs. Malone has sold all her property and converted her money into jewels. She tells Mrs. Malone that those who prepare for survival will rule "after the explosion." Mrs. Malone intends to be a dictator because she has wealth and things that will be needed after the blast. The trailer finally reaches a desolate country and the servants' quarters are parked on the bank of a stream. While the large trailer in which Mrs. Malone lives is put on a sandy point in a stream. They have stopped at last.

MRS. MALONE dried her feet on her handkerchief and put on her shoes. Sitting in the moss she stretched, deliciously conscious of feeling cool, hard-fleshed and healthy.

Very close, something moved and crashed in the underbrush. She froze, thinking: "It's a deer!" Then she saw a dog, a lean black retriever, followed by a pair of dead rabbits.

Dog and man stopped when they saw Mrs. Malone. Then both came toward her.

"Who the dickens are you?" the hunter demanded.

"It's all right!" Mrs. Malone laughed. "Don't shoot!"

"I ain't going to shoot," the man said, grinning. "You sure gave me a start. I've been here in the woods three days and ain't seen a soul. How'd you get here?"

She explained as they went toward the trailers.

When Mrs. Malone saw the hunter and his dog, she looked angry and suspicious, as if they were intruders in her own particular Eden.

The hunter nodded in her direction, then squinted at the trailer, his mouth twisted into a grin.

"Are those rabbits for sale?" Mrs. Malone asked, pointedly.

The hunter's expression hardened. "These here?"

He held them up. He had tied them together by their hind paws and now they revolved at the end of the cord. "Well, I might for a couple of dollars each."

"Pay him, Angelo," Mrs. Malone said to the Marchese.

THE man took the money, untied the cord from around his wrist and handed his quarry over to Mrs. Malone. He then spoke to the retriever, and with another quick, contemptuous glance at the caravan, disappeared into the forest.

"Tell Rudy to skin and dress the rabbits at once, Malone."

Mrs. Malone turned away and hurried to where Victor and Rudy were working.

"Who was that guy with the gun?"

Mrs. Malone explained. "And here are some rabbits."

"For dinner?"

"Yes," Mrs. Malone said. She had strolled up behind them. "We'll celebrate in honor of our safe arrival. A very special dinner. Champagne. We must recognize our good fortune. And register our gratitude."

Mrs. Malone smiled. "I want you all to know," she said, "that we are outside the danger zone. These mountains give us complete immunity."

"How long must we stay here?" Mrs. Malone asked.

"Several months."

"Will we know when—when it happens?"

"Yes. Listen to your radios. There'll be an alarm. Then, nothing. That's how you know."

Mrs. Malone went to her room and surreptitiously switched on the radio; then, just as quickly and secretly, switched it off again. She did not want to hear the alarm, when and if it should come.

SAYS WORKERS GO PAGAN

Liverpool.—(P)—Most British industrial workers "have already gone pagan," a Sheffield steel manufacturer complained to a Methodist church conference.

"Men and women are blindly turning into by-ways and cul de sacs (blind alleys)," said the speaker, J. A. Stead, "in a feeble endeavor to find freedom and liberty."

Laborers are wandering away from the church, he said, while "masters" and the "black-coated" worker has become its main strength. The reason for this?

"Today we no longer meet together on such close and intimate terms. We now live apart. The employer lives—or hopes to live—in the West End. The industrial worker lives in the East End," Stead said.

Stead said it was the employers' responsibility to bring the workers back into the fold.

Six hundred of the most common weeds in the United States came from Europe and Asia.

Plan To Hold 4-H Show at Illinois Fair 'As Usual'

Virginia—Illinois 4-H leaders intend to go ahead with the annual 4-H show held in connection with the state fair, unless the polio epidemic gets worse between now and fair time.

E. I. Pichard of Urbana, state 4-H leader, told Farm Adviser E. E. Lamont in a telephone conversation Monday afternoon that this decision had been reached after a conference between 4-H representatives, state fair officers and officials of the state and Springfield health departments. A quarantine restricting youngsters under 16 years of age to their home areas is now in effect in Springfield.

This ban would effect about three-fourths of the 4-H membership.

Following the conference held in Springfield Sunday afternoon, the 4-H leaders decided to hold their program as usual.

Predicts August Will Be Biggest Car Making Month

Detroit, Aug. 12.—(P)—The auto industry started today on what probably will be the biggest production month in its history.

Estimates, based on advance scheduling, place the probable August output total at more than 675,000 cars and trucks. The record for a single month is 621,910 units, built in April 1929.

Achievement of a new record, of course, depends upon uninterrupted assembly line operation. Any plant shutdowns for even a few days would make a new high mark impossible.

Last week the factories built 140,792 cars and trucks. This brought the total for July to 578,700 units. Automotive news placed the industry's total United States output for the first seven months of 1949 at 3,589,250 units.

This is 612,102 vehicles ahead of output for the same period last year.

Scott 4-H Club Livestock Shown At Winchester Fair

Winchester—Monument Park at Winchester was a bee-hive of activity on Thursday July 28, when the 4-H club boys and girls gathered to hold their annual fair. The exhibits on display were the results of work by these young folks who are enrolled in agricultural and home economics clubs in Scott county. The excellent quality of the exhibits were a high tribute to the local leaders who supervised the activities of the clubs during the year.

The air was charged with the good natured competitive spirit of these youngsters who are growing up the 4-H club way—working and playing together. Displays were arranged, pigs washed and groomed, calves and cattle were groomed and curled.

In the sheep section carding combs were in action to fluff and prepare the wool. Over in the pavilion displays prepared by the house wives of 1955 and 1960 showed their talents in baking and food preparation. These same young ladies were also making last minute adjustments on the garments of their own making that they would model in the style review in the afternoon.

Clothing Exhibits Judged
Clothing exhibits were judged by Miss Sophia Powell, Greene county home adviser. Foods were judged by Miss Marjorie Stewart, Morgan county assistant home adviser and Mrs. James Swain.

Agricultural exhibits were judged by Leonard Fuchs, Pike county farm adviser, and Carroll Johnson, Pike county farm bureau organization director.

Lions Club Will Pay Cost; Medical Society, City Are Cooperating

A movement to safeguard Jacksonville against the danger of poliomyelitis and other diseases with aerial spraying of certain areas with DDT, will be launched within the next few days.

The campaign to prevent spread of disease, will be carried on by the combined forces of the city, the Morgan County Medical Society, civic organizations and individuals.

The city council last night voted its cooperation to the Lions club, which asked official permission to have the brook area and city dump grounds sprayed from the air.

The Lions club, working through its public health committee, will pay the expense of aerial spraying.

A house-to-house campaign is planned for next Sunday, when circulars will be distributed, urging citizens to remove all health hazards from their premises.

Communication Presented
A communication from the Morgan County Medical Society was presented and read to the council by City Clerk Phillips. The letter addressed to Mayor Hoagland follows:

"You are well aware of the summer season, with its attendant hot weather, the prolific propagation of insects and the coincident increase in the prevalence of diseases which are seasonal in this climate, namely acute poliomyelitis and diarrhea of infants and children. There have already been reported from Jacksonville as many cases of poliomyelitis as are usually seen in a whole season. In view of the high incidence of the disease throughout the country and the epidemic proportions are reached in certain communities, it is reasonable to assume that there will be more cases in this area.

Communities Use DDT
"Many communities are carrying out aerial spraying with DDT solution or powder to reduce the number of insects. We have no definite proof that insects spread the disease but we do know that it is more prevalent during this season and that the virus has been recovered from the mosquito, fly, chicken mite, and some other insects. Certainly no one can promise or guarantee that one case of poliomyelitis will be prevented by elimination of these insects, but if one or more of our children were kept from being bitten by an infected vector, such a procedure would be considered worth while.

"We, of the Morgan County Medical Society, recommend that you seriously consider spraying the community in the near future, paying special attention to those areas where flies and mosquitoes are most prevalent (the brook, the city dump, sewage disposal areas, to name only a few.)

"We suggest that this matter be presented to the City Council at the earliest possible time.

The letter was signed by Dr. George L. Drennan, president; Dr. Mary Louise Newman, secretary; and Dr. F. E. Engelbach, chairman of the public health committee of the medical society.

At the conclusion of the reading of the letter by the clerk, Mayor Hoagland called upon a delegation of Lions club officials to address the council, stating that he had been advised that they were present in connection with the same subject.

Sunday Cleanup Day
Russell Rawlings, president of the Lions, said the club proposes to spray certain areas, having the Wharton Flying Service to do the work. He suggested that a proclamation be issued setting next Sunday as cleanup day, when citizens will be asked to clean their premises of weeds, trash, or any contamination which is a breeding place for flies or other insects.

Mr. Rawlings said the club is preparing to distribute circulars to every home, urging
